Treasurer's Report

This is a new year.

Building Stuff

The building has been power washed and painted. In the spring, the trim needs some TLC next. The prop area will also need some TLC in the spring to be organized and cleaned. We will be discussing a potential sign for the building in the next meeting. Nick believes that the lighting/sound area of the building should be on the agenda to get looked at next. There is still no news on whether or not the storage facility in McFarland is still going to allow us free storage. There has been room made at the OSHP building to put some of the things in the unit in our building.

Upcoming Shows

A December music event is no longer happening. For the summer, Jen has worked out rehearsal slots with Nate. Dates need to be solidified to figure out who exactly will be working sound/lighting. For Sweeney Todd, the size of the orchestra is fairly large so whether or not we have an in-person orchestra is still in question although Jen is leaning towards a digital orchestra. There are also questions as to age ranges of who we allow into Sweeney Todd as well as the costume budget. The tentative schedule for Sweeney Todd is that rehearsals start in May and the performances would be in July. There are talks about doing another smaller musical or concert after Sweeney Todd, still in the summer but this is not guaranteed. Other suggestions have been doing a fall play. The concerns with doing something in the fall is space availability and potential locations.

New Business

McFarland has asked if we would like to do any advertisement for our show in their pamphlets for their upcoming show. The board agreed on doing a full one page ad in each pamphlet. Sweeney Todd will have 6 performances (Friday, Saturday, Sunday and then the following Thursday, Friday and Saturday). In the mail we received a WACT letter asking if we wanted to become members, the board voted against it.

Next meeting is scheduled for November 16th, 2021. Meeting was adjourned at 7:57pm
